

Wolverhampton Information, Advice and Support Service

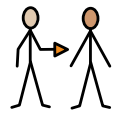

Confidentiality Policy

Wolverhampton IASS will always inform you that any information that you give to us is confidential and will not be passed on unless your agreement is given. This also includes confirming whether you have used our service.

We will not contact any other professional involved with your family without seeking your permission.

You

will be asked

for permission

for us to hold

information

on a

secure

database

created solely for the use of

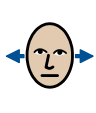

IAS

services

by a

non-council

company.

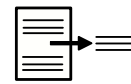

Details

are

kept

only for, and for use by us,

exceptions

may be when

there are concerns

about

safeguarding

or

criminal

activity or for the prevention

of

fraud.

   2014
Under the Children and Families Act 2014, children have the right to access information, advice and support away from their parents and carers, permission to share information must be given by the child or young person.

To ensure our Confidentiality Policy is effective, all IASS staff will receive a copy of the policy and understand how the policy is embedded in all aspects of IASS activities.

The policy will be reviewed annually.

  2024
Reviewed March 2024